What are the priorities of the Live Music program?

- Grow capacity, sustainability, and innovation within B.C.'s live music sector;
- Revitalize economic activity and jobs for B.C. musicians, live music companies, and industry professionals;
- Support music tourism and performance opportunities for artists and audiences; and
- Support a broad range of live music presenters, prioritizing underrepresented groups who experience systemic barriers to participation.

Funding Streams

This program has two funding streams, with separate guidelines and application forms.

- A) Live music presenters can apply for live music events through the Presentation stream.
- B) Live music presenters can apply for capacity-building activities through the Business Development stream.

Eligible Applicants

Applicants must be B.C.-based festivals, venues, event producers, or presenters that meet the following criteria:

- Is a B.C.-owned and controlled corporation, registered business, or sole proprietorship with a valid GST number, that files B.C. tax returns. Applicants may also be not-for-profit organizations with headquarters in B.C. New companies and individuals acting as sole proprietors can apply, but will be required to register their business upon successfully receiving a grant. New businesses are eligible to apply for funding;
- Primarily exists to present live music in B.C., or fills a gap in their respective community;
- Demonstrates an ongoing and sustained commitment to presenting live music and engagement within the local music community; and
- Produces live music events in B.C., and assumes risk in programming, producing, and promoting of these live music performances.

Not eligible to apply:

- Artists promoting or presenting their own tours or concerts; and
- Municipalities, spaces, or events owned or operated by any level of government.

Other eligibility information:

- If a company has previously received funding from Creative BC, all prior Live Music final reports must be submitted prior to December 31, 2022, to be eligible for funding through this intake; and
- The owners, principals, directors, officers, and shareholders of the applicant company must be in good standing (i.e., not in default) with Creative BC.

Creative BC encourages applications from underrepresented groups, including Indigenous Peoples (First Nations [Status/Non-Status], Métis, and Inuit), Black, People of Colour, People living with one or more Disability, 2SLGBTQIA+ communities, and other groups who experience systemic barriers to participation.

Eligible Activities

This stream provides eligible applicants with support for business development activities that directly support the viability, capacity, and sustainability of live music events, producers, and presenters. This funding stream is intended to support new or expanded activity, not ongoing operational expenses.

The types of projects eligible for this stream of funding include, but are not limited to:

- Capital infrastructure improvements;
- Audience development and market research;
- Improvements to business processes, policies, and procedures;
- Development of new products, services, or revenue streams;
- Staff growth and development;
- Development of knowledge and skills;
- Investment into creating sustainable and environmentally-friendly events and venues.

For more ideas on eligible projects, lists of previous recipients and recipient profiles can be found on the Creative BC website.

Eligible expenses include:

- Expenses for new or expanded company staff positions;
- Training, courses, and consultants to grow knowledge and build skills for employees in a specific area;
- Marketing campaigns, audience research, economic impact studies;
- Training, planning, and policy development related to implementing communicable disease plans, crowd management, emergency preparedness, assault prevention, risk assessment, harm reduction, equity and inclusion, etc.;

- Eco-friendly power sources (such as electric generators or grid power access), reusable plates, cups, and cutlery, composting toilets, cashless POS systems, water refilling stations, and other expenses related to creating a more sustainable event or venue;
- Equipment purchases and upgrades for sound systems, lighting, soundproofing, staging, technology, accessibility, etc.;
- Construction, building materials, and any other costs related to renovations or infrastructure improvements;
- Health and safety plans and protocols, PPE and supplies, safety equipment, etc.;
- GST for applicants who do not have GST accounts; and
- Existing resources directly related to the project to support a portion of the project.

If applying for infrastructure upgrades, please provide information outlining the rental terms/ownership of the property, and letters of support from owners or building management demonstrating an ongoing commitment to maintain the space as a live music venue.

Ineligible expenses include:

- Capital purchases not specific to the project;
- Operating costs not specific to the project, including utilities, regular maintenance, corporate overhead, or salaries;
- Costs related to the presentation of live events, including artist fees (these can be applied for through the Live Music: Presentation stream)
- Subscriptions, membership fees, or recurring expenses prior to this project;
- Expenses paid in cash;
- In-kind expenses or donated services;
- Grant writing fees, legal fees, management fees, business registration fees, or fees for financial statements; and
- Major expenses not included in the approved budget and incurred prior to Creative BC approval.

Funding for conference fees and business travel, (which includes travel to festivals, conferences, and general business meetings) is not eligible through this program, but can be accessed through Music BC's Business Travel Grant. Travel directly related to the project is eligible, and travel to and from courses or training will be considered.

Funding

Grant Amounts: $2,000 - $75,000 for up to 75% of budgeted cash expenditures.

Company cap: Applicants will be approved for a maximum of $75,000 per company, across the two funding streams.

This program funds activities and related expenses incurred between January 1, 2023, and December 31, 2023. Applicants are expected to contribute to the financing of the project and seek other revenue sources where appropriate. Public funding from any source cannot equal more than 75% of the project budget. There is no public funding cap for applications from companies owned by Indigenous peoples.

Applicants must provide a proposed budget for their project, and declare all sources of revenue, including confirmed and unconfirmed grants. Applicants should only apply for activities they can complete and pay for prior to December 31, 2023.

Successful applicants will receive a 75% advance payment upon execution of a funding agreement, and up to the remaining 25% upon completion of the final report, based on eligible final expenditures.

Application Evaluation

Applications will be evaluated by Creative BC staff and a panel of industry professionals representing a variety of live music companies, industry backgrounds, regions, and demographics. Applications will be scored according to the priorities of the program, using the categories below. The Business Development Scoring Sheet is available on the Creative BC website.

- Idea, Strategy & Approach
- Company Capacity
- Investment in B.C. Talent
- Economic Impact
- Justice, Equity, Decolonization, Diversity, and Inclusion
- Budget

Once applications are scored, Creative BC may make adjustments to fill gaps based on representation, region and type of applicant, to support the breadth of B.C. and its music industry. Creative BC will also prioritize applicants who have yet to receive significant funding through its programs, and applicants who do not receive significant operating support from public sources.

The review period for complete applications is approximately 14 weeks after the program deadline date. All applicants will be notified by email.

Project Completion

Recipients are required to complete a final report detailing the impact of the funding and provide invoices and proof of payment for expenses by December 31, 2023. The recipient is responsible for issuing all payments related to the project. Acceptable proof of payment includes a bank statement, credit card statement, processed cheque, wire transfer, or e-transfer confirmation.

How to Apply:

The online application is available on the Creative BC website. Applicants may submit one or more applications for each funding stream.

Applicants with a disability or accessibility need may contact Creative BC for support in preparing an application. A limited number of appointments will be available for applicants to prepare an application by phone or video call with staff. Contact Creative BC staff by October 17th to schedule an appointment.

Applicants with questions are encouraged to contact Creative BC staff prior to applying. Early submissions are welcomed. The Live Music program opens September 14, 2022 | Deadline October 26, 2022, at 11:59 PM PDT.
